

BEST RV ROAD TRIPS IN NORTH AMERICA

INCLUDES DETAILED TRIP PLANS FOR NORTH
AMERICA'S MOST POPULAR RV ROUTES

NATIONAL RV OWNER'S ASSOC.

RV Traveler's
Roadmap to

Green Mountain Highway

Beginning near the Massachusetts border and weaving northward almost to the Canadian border, this charming drive comprises the scenic quintessence of Vermont – contented cattle, tidy villages with quaint general stores, and mountains that seem as old as time.

1

Highlights & Facts For The Ideal Experience

Green Mountain National Forest

- Trip Length: Roughly 220 miles, plus side trips
- Best Time To Go: Year-round. Fall foliage early to mid October – many local newspapers have foliage reports.
- What To Watch Out For: Book reservations early for fall foliage tours and accommodations. Mountain roads may be closed in winter. Some attractions are seasonal
- Must See Nearby Attractions:
 - 1 Honora Winery (Jacksonville)
 - 2 Jamaica State Park
 - 3 Vermont Country Store (Weston)
 - 4 President Coolidge Birthplace (Plymouth)
 - 5 Moss Glen Falls - Granville (covered bridge)
 - 6 Vermont Ski Museum (Stowe)

2

Traveler's Notes

Jamaica State Park

- Scenic Route 100 encompasses four-season beauty and is internationally known for its incredible fall foliage. With rolling hills, a meandering river, crystal clear lakes and ponds, mountain and valley vistas, unspoiled forests, and quintessential Vermont towns, this route has it all.
- This route is also full of rich history and home to dozens of cultural landmarks that make it a truly unique journey. Visit President Calvin Coolidge's birthplace and Historic Site; and make sure to leave time to shop and visit Plymouth Artisan Cheese. In Ludlow you can also see where Calvin Coolidge went to school which is now called Black River Academy Museum. The entire Village of Weston is registered as a historic town.
- Mountain bikers and cyclists are drawn to the extensive trails and winding roads; golfers flock to play some of Vermont's most popular and challenging courses.

3

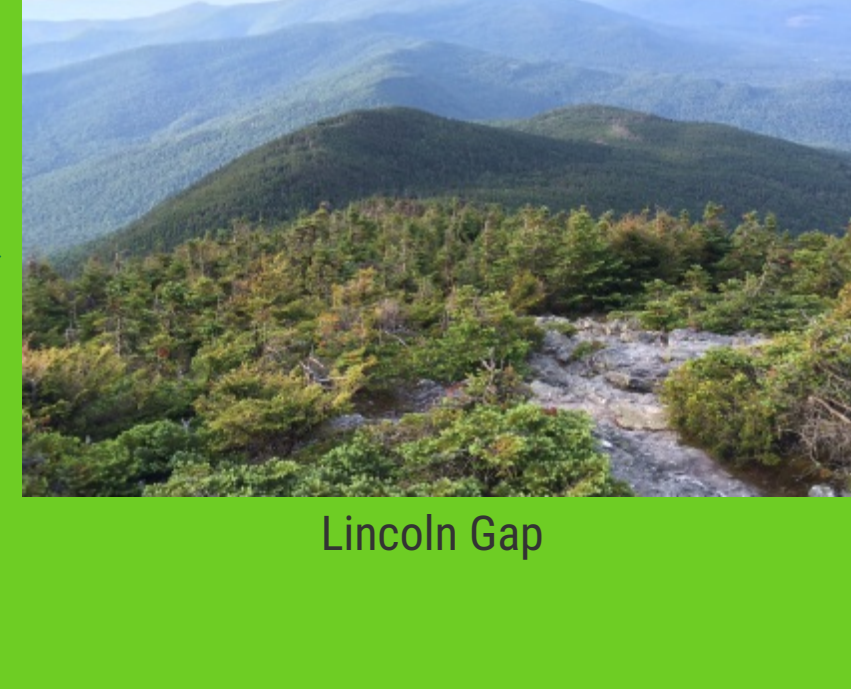

What To See Along the Way

- Wilmington
- Green Mountain NF
- Townshend State Park
- Jamaica State Park
- Scenic Mountain Loop
- Weston
- Ludlow
- Plymouth
- Killington
- Gifford Woods State Park
- White River Valley
- Middlebury Gap
- Lincoln Gap
- Mad River Valley
- Waterbury
- Stowe
- Jay Peak

4

Facts & More Information To Plan Your Trip!

Lincoln Gap

- Wilmington: Picturesque village, surrounded by beautiful rural mountainous countryside.
- Green Mountain National Forest: Contains more than 2000 archaeological and historic sites spanning the history of Vermont.
- Townshend State Park: The park provides a camping facility and hiking trails for accessing Bald Mountain.
- Jamaica State Park: Activities includes camping, swimming, boating, river fishing, hiking, picnicking, mountain biking, wildlife watching, and winter sports.
- Scenic Mountain Loop: Explore farms, orchards, vineyards, and mountain views.
- Plymouth: Calvin Coolidge, the 30th President of the United States was born in this town and is also buried here.
- Killington: The largest ski area in the Eastern United States, and has the largest vertical drop in New England at 3,050 feet.
- Waterbury: Along the eastern fold of the Green Mountains, scenic byways and Interstate 89 converge in Waterbury, providing ready access to Stowe, Montpelier, Burlington, and the Mad River Valley.
- Mad River Valley: A unique combination of community and resort, that has to be visited to really appreciate.
- Jay Peak: A four season resort in Northern Vermont, close to Canada and Burlington, and far from anything resembling ordinary.

Ready, set, go!