Traveler's Notes

Lake Placid

- Thirteen scenic byways in the Adirondack North Country feature awe-inspiring scenery. The Adirondack Trail travels through the center of the Adirondack Park, and the Olympic Trail runs from Lake Champlain to Lake Ontario. The Central Adirondack Trail passes scenic Lake George, the world-famous Adirondack Museum, historic Adirondack Great Camps, and the restored Fort Stanwix and Erie Canal Village in Central New York.
- A landscape that will be forever wild, Adirondack Park offers a rare opportunity to traverse mountainous landscapes and valley slopes, from the convenience of your car. Head north on the Lakes to Locks Passage, a scenic byway that threads the shores of Lake Champlain, where you'll experience 360 degree mountain views from Adirondack peaks in the west to Green Mountains in the east.
- The heartland of East Coast wine country, the 11 freshwater lakes of this region create a sensory-rich experience from the view of sunset vistas to the taste of fresh grapes.
