BEST RV ROAD TRIPS IN NORTH AMERICA

INCLUDES DETAILED TRIP PLANS FOR NORTH AMERICA'S MOST POPULAR RV ROUTES

NATIONAL RV OWNER'S ASSOC.
Maine Coast

Although Route 1 offers its share of eye-catching delights, the twists and turns that characterize the coast in this corner of America are best seen from secondary roads that meander down long promenades and across out of the way islands.

Highlights & Facts For The Ideal Experience

- Trip Length: Roughly 300 miles.
- Best Time To Go: Year round, best May-October.
- Must See Nearby Attractions: L.L. Bean, Inc. Freeport, ME (retail store); Penobscot Marine Museum (Searsport).

Traveler’s Notes

- Facts & More Information To Plan Your Trip!
  - What To See Along the Way: Brunswick: The gateway to Maine’s magnificent midcoast.
  - Bailey Island: Located within the town of Harpswell, a unique coastal community which recently celebrated its 250th birthday.
  - Bath: Some of Maine’s most beautiful beaches and preserves are located within 20 minutes of Bath.
  - Popham Beach State Park: Sits just 14 miles from the coastal town of Bath and continues to be one of the most beloved and visited.
  - Reid State Park: A state-operated, public recreation area overlooking the Atlantic Ocean on Georgetown Island.
  - Boothbay Harbor: During summer months, the entire Boothbay Harbor region is a popular yachting and tourist destination.
  - Damariscotta: Home to the Pemaquid Point Light in Bristol; famous for the dramatic streaked granite cliffs that surround it.
  - Pemaquid Point: A historic U.S. lighthouse located in Bristol.
  - Port Clyde: The southernmost settlement on the St. George peninsula.
  - Camden Hills State Park: A publicly owned recreation area overlooking Penobscot Bay.
  - Holbrook Island Sanctuary: Swimming, fishing plus hiking and cross-country skiing.
  - Stonington: Offers visitors a look into the unique culture of down east Maine.

Touring the Maine Coast is an extraordinary journey. With more coastline than California (3,478 miles), it takes time to view the entire Maine Coast. The State of Maine is larger than the other 5 New England states combined, with 6,000 lakes and ponds.

When traveling to a region in search of reminders otherwise, use I-95. Brunswick, Portland, South Coastal Maine, Downeast or on the Maine coast, every option on the list is found only minutes away from this scenic cruise.

As you continue your journey up the coast you discover the Village of Ogunquit - which means “Beautiful Place by the Sea” in the language of the Algonquin Indians. A visit to the lively Perkin’s Cove is definitely in order. This miniature working lobster and fishing village is chock full of wonderful little shops, restaurants and art galleries.

Trip Length: Roughly 300 miles

Best Time To Go: Year round, best May-October.

Must See Nearby Attractions:
- L.L. Bean, Inc. Freeport, ME (retail store)
- Penobscot Marine Museum (Searsport)

Ready, set, go!

Although Route 1 offers its share of eye-catching delights, the twists and turns that characterize the coast in this corner of America are best seen from secondary roads that meander down long promenades and across out of the way islands.

Highlights & Facts For The Ideal Experience

- Trip Length: Roughly 300 miles.
- Best Time To Go: Year round, best May-October.
- Must See Nearby Attractions: L.L. Bean, Inc. Freeport, ME (retail store); Penobscot Marine Museum (Searsport).

Traveler’s Notes

- Facts & More Information To Plan Your Trip!
  - What To See Along the Way: Brunswick: The gateway to Maine’s magnificent midcoast.
  - Bailey Island: Located within the town of Harpswell, a unique coastal community which recently celebrated its 250th birthday.
  - Bath: Some of Maine’s most beautiful beaches and preserves are located within 20 minutes of Bath.
  - Popham Beach State Park: Sits just 14 miles from the coastal town of Bath and continues to be one of the most beloved and visited.
  - Reid State Park: A state-operated, public recreation area overlooking the Atlantic Ocean on Georgetown Island.
  - Boothbay Harbor: During summer months, the entire Boothbay Harbor region is a popular yachting and tourist destination.
  - Damariscotta: Home to the Pemaquid Point Light in Bristol; famous for the dramatic streaked granite cliffs that surround it.
  - Pemaquid Point: A historic U.S. lighthouse located in Bristol.
  - Port Clyde: The southernmost settlement on the St. George peninsula.
  - Camden Hills State Park: A publicly owned recreation area overlooking Penobscot Bay.
  - Holbrook Island Sanctuary: Swimming, fishing plus hiking and cross-country skiing.
  - Stonington: Offers visitors a look into the unique culture of down east Maine.

Touring the Maine Coast is an extraordinary journey. With more coastline than California (3,478 miles), it takes time to view the entire Maine Coast. The State of Maine is larger than the other 5 New England states combined, with 6,000 lakes and ponds.

When traveling to a region in search of reminders otherwise, use I-95. Brunswick, Portland, South Coastal Maine, Downeast or on the Maine coast, every option on the list is found only minutes away from this scenic cruise.

As you continue your journey up the coast you discover the Village of Ogunquit - which means “Beautiful Place by the Sea” in the language of the Algonquin Indians. A visit to the lively Perkin’s Cove is definitely in order. This miniature working lobster and fishing village is chock full of wonderful little shops, restaurants and art galleries.

Trip Length: Roughly 300 miles

Best Time To Go: Year round, best May-October.

Must See Nearby Attractions:
- L.L. Bean, Inc. Freeport, ME (retail store)
- Penobscot Marine Museum (Searsport)

Ready, set, go!

Although Route 1 offers its share of eye-catching delights, the twists and turns that characterize the coast in this corner of America are best seen from secondary roads that meander down long promenades and across out of the way islands.

Highlights & Facts For The Ideal Experience

- Trip Length: Roughly 300 miles.
- Best Time To Go: Year round, best May-October.
- Must See Nearby Attractions: L.L. Bean, Inc. Freeport, ME (retail store); Penobscot Marine Museum (Searsport).

Traveler’s Notes

- Facts & More Information To Plan Your Trip!
  - What To See Along the Way: Brunswick: The gateway to Maine’s magnificent midcoast.
  - Bailey Island: Located within the town of Harpswell, a unique coastal community which recently celebrated its 250th birthday.
  - Bath: Some of Maine’s most beautiful beaches and preserves are located within 20 minutes of Bath.
  - Popham Beach State Park: Sits just 14 miles from the coastal town of Bath and continues to be one of the most beloved and visited.
  - Reid State Park: A state-operated, public recreation area overlooking the Atlantic Ocean on Georgetown Island.
  - Boothbay Harbor: During summer months, the entire Boothbay Harbor region is a popular yachting and tourist destination.
  - Damariscotta: Home to the Pemaquid Point Light in Bristol; famous for the dramatic streaked granite cliffs that surround it.
  - Pemaquid Point: A historic U.S. lighthouse located in Bristol.
  - Port Clyde: The southernmost settlement on the St. George peninsula.
  - Camden Hills State Park: A publicly owned recreation area overlooking Penobscot Bay.
  - Holbrook Island Sanctuary: Swimming, fishing plus hiking and cross-country skiing.
  - Stonington: Offers visitors a look into the unique culture of down east Maine.

Touring the Maine Coast is an extraordinary journey. With more coastline than California (3,478 miles), it takes time to view the entire Maine Coast. The State of Maine is larger than the other 5 New England states combined, with 6,000 lakes and ponds.

When traveling to a region in search of reminders otherwise, use I-95. Brunswick, Portland, South Coastal Maine, Downeast or on the Maine coast, every option on the list is found only minutes away from this scenic cruise.

As you continue your journey up the coast you discover the Village of Ogunquit - which means “Beautiful Place by the Sea” in the language of the Algonquin Indians. A visit to the lively Perkin’s Cove is definitely in order. This miniature working lobster and fishing village is chock full of wonderful little shops, restaurants and art galleries.

Trip Length: Roughly 300 miles

Best Time To Go: Year round, best May-October.

Must See Nearby Attractions:
- L.L. Bean, Inc. Freeport, ME (retail store)
- Penobscot Marine Museum (Searsport)