BEST RV ROAD TRIPS IN NORTH AMERICA

INCLUDES DETAILED TRIP PLANS FOR NORTH AMERICA'S MOST POPULAR RV ROUTES

NATIONAL RV OWNER'S ASSOC.
North Dakota Sampler

On-A-Slant Indian Village

Garrison Dam

Little Missouri National Grassland

Theodore Roosevelt National Park (South Unit)

Lewis & Clark State Park

Fort Union Trading Post

Little Missouri River National Park

Medora Musical, a Western-style revue (June-Sep)

Mandan Rodeo Days (July)

Lewis & Clark Weekend in August (Cross Ranch State Park)

United Tribes Powwow in September (Bismarck)

Ready, set, go!

Meandering through the state, Routes 85, 200, and 1804 offer a sampling of what North Dakota has to offer. The Knife River Indian Villages can be seen near Route 37, and the Audubon National Wildlife Refuge is a great place to spot Canadian geese, falcons, and eagles. Stop at the Fort Union Trading Post, founded in 1828 by the American Fur Company, and the Theodore Roosevelt National Park for views of colorful bluffs and buttes.

Trip Length: Roughly 400 miles, plus side trips

Best Time to Go: Best from May - mid-September

What to Watch Out For: Keep a safe distance from bison, which run as fast as 35 MPH.

Must See Nearby Attractions:

Medora Musical, a Western-style revue (June-Sep)

Mandan Rodeo Days (July)

Lewis & Clark Weekend in August (Cross Ranch State Park)

United Tribes Powwow in September (Bismarck)

Facts & More Information To Plan Your Trip!

Presented by: Great RV Escapes

1515 Warner Ave., Suite F120, Huntington Beach, CA 92647

(888) 727-1118